Read Mark 2:1-12.

Talk about the most crowded place you've ever been in.

Why were there so many people at the house? If Jesus were around teaching today, would you try to get close enough to hear him?

What is a paralytic? If your friend couldn't walk, would you be desperate enough to cut a hole in the roof in order for him to meet Jesus?

Some people (the Pharisees) were actually angry that Jesus healed the man, because Jesus forgave the man's sins. Only God can forgive sins. If Jesus forgives sins, too, what does that make him? Why did Jesus heal the paralyzed man?

How would you feel if you couldn't walk and Jesus healed you with his words? What would your first reaction be?

People said "We never saw anything like this." What is another thing Jesus did or said that we've never seen anything like?
